

Evidence in Science and Epistemology

Conference in Helsinki

27-28 May 2014

Programme

Tuesday 27 May

10:00-11:00

Trent Dougherty (Baylor): Evidence, evidence, EVIDENCE!

11:00-12:00

Maria Lasonen-Aarnio (Michigan): Enkrasia or Evidentialism?

12:00-13:00

Lunch

13:00-14:00

Jacob Stegenga (Utah): Measuring the quality of evidence in medical research

14:00-15:00

Aki Lehtinen & Luis Mireles Flores (Helsinki): Evidence amalgamation in economics

15:00-16:00

Petri Ylikoski & Päivi Seppälä (Helsinki): Evidence and explanation in historical sciences

Wednesday 28 May

10:00-11:00

Jeremy Howick (Oxford): How an adequate definition of the placebo can improve medical trials and practice (how philosophy can help epidemiology)

11:00-12:00

Jaakko Kuorikoski & Caterina Marchionni (Helsinki): Evidential diversity and the triangulation of phenomena

12:00-13:00

Lunch

13:00-14:00

Clayton Littlejohn (King's College London): Evidence and its Limits

14:00-15:00

Markus Lammenranta (Helsinki): The Dialectical Conception of Evidence

15:00-16:00

Juho Ritola (Turku): Accounts of begging the question