

Current Trends in the Philosophy of the Social Sciences II

Symposium in Helsinki

3 June 2014, 10-17hrs

Programme

10:15-10:20

Uskali Mäki, University of Helsinki: Opening words

10:20-11:05

Francesco Guala, University of Milan: What is Marriage?

11:05-11:20

Break

11:20-12:05

Miles MacLeod and Michiru Nagatsu, University of Helsinki: Interdisciplinarity through Model Coupling in Ecological Economics: Conditions for Effective Interdisciplinary Integration

12:05-12:50

Mikko Salmela, University of Helsinki: Collective Emotions

12:50-14:15

Lunch

14:15-15:00

Hans Bernhard Schmid, University of Vienna: Expectations in Interaction: Cognitive, Normative, and Effective

15:00-15:45

Petri Ylikoski, University of Helsinki (with Samuli Pöyhönen): Social Scientific Kinds and Mechanisms

15:45-16:00

Break

16:00-16:45

Stephen Turner, University of South Florida (with Peter Olen): Durkheim, Sellars, and the Birth of Collective Intentionality